Incredible Teamaction Presents New Counter-Strike Team

HAMBURG, Germany -- March 6, 2005 -- Incredible Teamaction (www.clan-it.net), one of Europe's top gaming organizations, today announced their new up and coming professional Counter-Strike Team.

The new team, formerly known as evermore, consists of key players in the Danish eSports Scene and will compete on a series of events in Denmark, Scandinavia, France, Germany, United Kingdom and Spain starting with the Played.dk LAN #8 Event in Glostrup, Denmark next week.

"We have had an intense research in the recent months and I am glad that we have found a strong and dedicated team now," said Chief Executive Officer of Incredible Teamaction, Martin 'Hardlife' Szulecki. "Incredible Teamaction will help the players to raise their level in the European competitive gaming scene -- something which would rarely be possible without a bigger organization and the experience Incredible Teamaction will supply."

Incredible Teamaction has a very successful history reaching a top 10 European gaming team, best gaming organization in Norway, numerous media appearances including TV and the biggest Newspapers in Norway and participation among Europe's leading gaming events like the Electronic Sports World Cup (ESWC) during the year 2004.

With events such as the CPL World Tour, Electronic Sports World Cup, World Cyber Games, ESL Pro Series Denmark and an eSports TV Channel in Denmark the year 2005 is considered full of gaming and marketing potential in the gaming industry by Incredible Teamaction.

The players which will represent Incredible Teamaction in the Counter-Strike scene are:

Josri 'ziGa' Attia
Danny 'zonic' Sørensen
Søren 'Galahat' Glavind Eriksen
Brian 'hpx' Pøhl
Henrik 'Ktulu' Kristensen

The experienced Jasper 'Jellyshot' Broberg who was previously involved in successful teams such as Spirit of Amiga (SoA) or temporary (temp!) will assist the team in the upcoming months as a team manager.
